Glad to hear it! Mine was also nice, thanks for asking! That extra day was well needed and appreciated!

Please do me a favor and send me a quick email if you don't get the thesis by FedEx today. I want to be sure it gets there so you have plenty of time before my deadlines start creeping up!

Thanks!

I hit a little snag while I was trying to send you my thesis over email - its too big. I have charts and graphs included and its way too big to email. May I send you a CD with the file on it and a paper copy as backup? If so I'll burn the CD today and put it in bureau mail.

Have a wonderful holiday weekend!

Thanks!

Re: Thesis titled, "Speaking Islamic': Finding Value in Citizen Intelligence"

Dear Ms. Heigle,

This letter is in response to the May 26, 2009, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24), of your thesis titled, "Speaking Islamic': Finding Value in Citizen Generated Intelligence."

The thesis was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your providing the thesis, as presented, for publication to the National Defense Intelligence College.

You may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Hi [REDACTED]

I'm enclosing two additional releases from two FBI agents. One agent, Jerome Gangwer, is not mentioned in the book but I'll probably put his name in somewhere as he was a part of [REDACTED]

b6 -1

[REDACTED]

I have three more books for you to use as references re Mitrokhin. They are:

The First Directorate: My 32 Years in Intelligence and Espionage Against the West, by Oleg Kalugin and Fen Montaigne. See pages 82 to 85 re Lipka.

The Sword and the Shield: The Mitrokhin Archive and the Secret History of the KGB, by Christopher Andrew and Vasili Mitrokhin. The first chapter discusses the Lipka case and a photo of Lipka appears in the book.

The World Was Going Our Way: The KGB and the Battle for the Third World, by Christopher Andrew. Read the introduction before chapter one to learn all about Mitrokhin.

Hope this helps to clear things up!

Hi [redacted]

b6 -2

Attached find twenty-two pages of scanned release slips signed by a total of 23 FBI Special Agents and support employees. One page contains two releases of agents who cut the bottom of the form and only returned that piece.

I'm still waiting for one or two more and will send them on as I receive them.

I will try to send some publically available references soon.

[ ] I spoke with John Whiteside this morning. He will begin sending his public resource material and 3rd party acknowledgement letters. Below, he includes reference material about the case discussed in his book. I will give you as much help as possible. He said if there is anything else that is needed, please let him know. I just forwarded his manuscript to you. He did say that some information is fictional because it was prior to when the Bureau actually started its investigation (ie, entering the embassy, dialogue with his ex-wife). Feel free to ask him for clarity if there is any information that you have a question about. He seems really eager to help the process and he is willing to come in and go over the manuscript if necessary.

Hi [ ]

Wanted you to know that I received your message. I will prepare some sort of letter to all FBI personnel named in the book and seek their permission to use their true names. My intent in using them was simply to give credit to all who participated in a marvelous investigation and not to embarrass anyone.

Secondly, I will try to collect some public source material as there is plenty to choose from. I would suggest looking at the book " The Bureau" (2004) by Ronald Kessler, pages 384 to 389. My entire book is pretty much summarized in those pages, including the true identity of the undercover FBI agent.

I was the case agent of the entire investigation and was responsible for all investigation, planning, etc from September 1992 to the end of the book. I wrote the book with several intentions in mind. First, to memorialize the case, secondly to assist future FBI agents in understanding what we did and why we did it, and lastly, because I thought the case significant enough and interesting enough to put a book together. I specifically kept classified information out of the story for obvious reasons. I will be happy to go over the book with you and help in any way.

Regards, John

Charles Silverthorn
 Norris Harzenstein
 Blaze Tomasoni (who I incorrectly named in the book and whose name will be dropped)
 Robert Ben (Bob) Wade
 Robert (Bob) Broderick
 Nick Hand
 Paul Nolan
 Frank Gaffney

The following names in the book became SAC's at some time in their careers and were not asked for permission. They are:

Tim Berezney
 Bob Reutter
 Toby Harding
 Steve Dillard

I will scan copies of releases I received from Special Agents and other employees who I mentioned in the book to you in the near future.

Dear [REDACTED]

b6 -2

Over a month ago, I e-mailed you the proposed book for review by F.B.I. Headquarters. Later, I e-mailed you some pictures for perusal by F.B.I. Headquarters. My father, if you recall, was a Special Agent of the F.B.I. and shared information with me that I included in the book. To protect my father from harm, I sent the proposed book for review.

I have a Literary Agent who would like to market the book as soon as possible and has graciously been waiting for over 30 days. I had to tell the Literary Agent that the F.B.I. needed more time to consider the contents of the proposed book. It's important to me that I deliver the book to my Literary Agent as quickly as I can, and I'm hopeful you will be able to complete the review of the book within the near future.

How much more time do you think the F.B.I. Headquarters will need? Your help is always appreciated.

Sincerely,

Kristi Fable

b6 -2

Thank you for responding to my efforts. In view of your note, I will follow up on reviewing two boxes of court documents related to the Lipka case that are in storage and must be requested to be pulled and reviewed. If it is in the best interests of getting the book published, I will certainly travel to Winchester, VA once I obtain necessary information to assist in the review. ( Here I thought you were located in Washington, DC!)

FYI, I have sent a copy of the transcript to NSA for their review and approval. It remains under review at this time, although since nothing of a classified nature was divulged regarding their mission or involvement in the case, I suspect it will be approved. I am also sure that the FBI CI Division will want to approve it and I am again somewhat surprised that you are not affiliated with them.

I will review all publically available court documents and copy that which will hopefully allay any concerns. Once completed, I will arrange for a get together with you.

Thanks for your help to date.

Regards, John

P.S. FYI, the espionage subject Robert Lipka has already published a book entitled "Hi-Q," a trivia book that is available on-line!

 Good morning Mr. Whiteside,

b6 -2

After review by Mr. Hardy, it's deemed more documentation on your public source information concerning the NSA and FBI's participation in this case is required. I've spoken to [REDACTED] who had been in contact with you previously on the review of your manuscript. [REDACTED] advised that you might be available to come to our Winchester office for us to review your public source information. Please advised if it is still possible? Please be aware the manuscript may still require review by NSA and the FBI's Counterintelligence Division.

Thank you

b6 -2

I'm enclosing two additional releases from two FBI agents. One agent, Jerome Gangwer, is not mentioned in the book but I'll probably put his name in somewhere as he was a part of [REDACTED]

b6 -1

I have three more books for you to use as references re Mitrokhin. They are:

The First Directorate: My 32 Years in Intelligence and Espionage Against the West, by Oleg Kalugin and Fen Montaigne. See pages 82 to 85 re Lipka.

The Sword and the Shield: The Mitrokhin Archive and the Secret History of the KGB, by Christopher Andrew and Vasili Mitrokhin. The first chapter discusses the Lipka case and a photo of Lipka appears in the book.

The World Was Going Our Way: The KGB and the Battle for the Third World, by Christopher Andrew. Read the introduction before chapter one to learn all about Mitrokhin.

Hope this helps to clear things up!

Re the names you asked about, Rudolph Abel was the first KGB illegal intelligence officer to be identified in the United States, living in New York City. He was tracked down after giving a newsboy a hollow nickel that was a concealment device for microfilm. He was arrested by the FBI in 1959 (I think) and was subsequently traded for Gary Francis Powers, a U. S. U-2 pilot who was shot down over the USSR in 1960.

Boris Solomatin was the KGB Resident, the man in charge of the entire Washington, DC KGB office during the time Lipka was involved in espionage. [REDACTED]

The three questions I have to research are: who is Boris Solomatin, Rudolph Abel and [REDACTED]? Our Internet is down today, as soon as it is back up, I will look the names up. If you can give me some insight to the above names I would certainly appreciate it. So, I don't know if you will be disappointed, but you probably will not have to come down. October 3, 2008,

Dear Henry,

I am writing to you to advise that I have recently completed a book on the Robert Lipka espionage case. My reasons for writing it varied, but several stand out. Based upon the success of the case I wanted to give everyone in the FBI the credit they deserved. I also wanted to memorialize the case, as well as present some of the problems we faced to the reader, hoping that it will one day assist other Special Agents working espionage cases.

The book is based on a true story as there is still much we do not know about the case. I was motivated to write the book upon hearing of the release from jail of Robert Lipka in December 2006, and then learning that his ex-wife Patricia, who was invaluable to the investigation had died of a brain tumor in August 2004.

The book is currently in the FBI Headquarters pre-review unit for approval. They have asked me to secure your permission to use your name in the book. If you agree to let me use your true name, please fill out and sign this letter as noted and return to me. If you do not want me to use your name let me know as well. If I do not hear from you I will assume you do not want your name mentioned, and I will delete it from the book.

Thanks for your prompt response to this request, and if I ever find a publisher, please buy a few copies!

Warm regards,

John Whiteside

I was motivated to write the book upon hearing of the release from jail of Robert Lipka in December 2006, and then learning that his ex-wife Patricia, who was invaluable to the investigation had died of a brain tumor in August 2004.

The book is currently in the FBI Headquarters pre-review unit for approval. They have asked me to secure your permission to use your name in the book. If you agree to let me use your true name, please fill out and sign this letter as noted and return to me. If you do not want me to use your name let me know as well. If I do not hear from you I will assume you do not want your name mentioned, and I will delete it from the book.

October 3, 2008,

Dear Klaus,

I am writing to you to advise that I have recently completed a book on the Robert Lipka espionage case. My reasons for writing it varied, but several stand out. Based upon the success of the case I wanted to give everyone in the FBI the credit they deserved. I also wanted to memorialize the case, as well as present some of the problems we faced to the reader, hoping that it will one day assist other Special Agents working espionage cases.

The book is based on a true story as there is still much we do not know about the case. I was motivated to write the book upon hearing of the release from jail of Robert Lipka in December 2006, and then learning that his ex-wife Patricia, who was invaluable to the investigation had died of a brain tumor in August 2004.

October 3, 2008,

Dear Jerome,

I am writing to you to advise that I have recently completed a book on the Robert Lipka espionage case. My reasons for writing it varied, but several stand out. Based upon the success of the case I wanted to give everyone in the FBI the credit they deserved. I also wanted to memorialize the case, as well as present some of the problems we faced to the reader, hoping that it will one day assist other Special Agents working espionage cases.

The book is based on a true story as there is still much we do not know about the case. I was motivated to write the book upon hearing of the release from jail of Robert Lipka in December 2006, and then learning that his ex-wife Patricia, who was invaluable to the investigation had died of a brain tumor in August 2004.

The book is currently in the FBI Headquarters pre-review unit for approval. They have asked me to secure your permission to use your name in the book. If you agree to let me use your true name, please fill out and sign this letter as noted and return to me. If you do not want me to use your name let me know as well. If I do not hear from you I will assume you do not want your name mentioned, and I will delete it from the book.

Thanks for your prompt response to this request, and if I ever find a publisher, please buy a few copies!

Warm regards,

John

Re: Manuscript titled, "The Robert Lipka Story - Fools Mate"

Dear Mr. Whiteside,

This letter is in response to the September 4, 2008, submission for review, pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures (MAOP), Part I, 1-24), of your manuscript titled, "The Robert Lipka Story - Fools Mate."

The manuscript was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and it was concluded that nothing contained in the submission fell within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to your making the manuscript, as presented, for publication.

You may include your former title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details, and if it is accompanied by a reasonably prominent disclaimer advising that the views expressed in the article do not necessarily represent the views of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process. b6 -2

Sincerely,
